Captain Lazar's Message

San Francisco SAFE (Safety Awareness for Everyone)

This evening, I will be attending a fundraiser for San Francisco SAFE at Original Joe's. SF Safe, as many of you are aware, is a non-profit organization, partnered with the Police Department to provide services such as the formation of neighborhood watch groups, crime prevention education information, home and business security surveys and bicycle registration to name a few. I often promote SF Safe and ask residents to request a free home security survey. Please view SF Safe's website at www.sfsafe.org

Commanding Officer Central Station

Crisis Intervention Team 1st Annual Award Ceremony

A few hundred police officers have been trained in crisis intervention in order to safely deal with those in mental crisis. The Department held its first annual awards ceremony to those trained officers who have performed incredible work and applied their training. The ceremony was held on Tuesday. I nominated Officer Jennifer Foxworth, an Officer who has been with the Department for a year and a half and is currently on our swing watch. Officer Foxworth was one of only a few officers who received an award for their heroic actions. In February, Officer Foxworth talked a veteran off of a ledge. He was planning on committing suicide by jumping off the roof of a downtown hotel. Congratulations to Officer Foxworth!

Nob Hill Community Group

Yesterday I had the opportunity to meet with a group of residents in Nob Hill. The meeting was scheduled and organized by the owner of Lebeau Market at Leavenworth and Clay. I enjoy meeting with the community and talking about personal safety and crime prevention. I mentioned this newsletter and community members asked me to sign them up. This newsletter is a good way to stay connected with Central Station.

Congratulations to Deputy Chief Garret Tom

As all of you may remember, Deputy Chief Tom was the Captain of Central Station prior to me. He was promoted to Commander in May of 2014 and I was fortunate to take his place at Central Station. This month, Commander Tom was promoted to Deputy Chief as one of five Deputy Chief's overseeing the Police Department. Deputy Chief Tom is in charge of the Special Operations Bureau which is home to the Tactical Company, Homeland Security, Traffic Company, the Urban Area Security Initiative and the Department's 24 hour Operations Center.

Anonymous Tip Line for Chinese Speakers

Central Station just rolled out a tip line for Cantonese and Mandarin speaking members of our community. The tip line provides an opportunity for the community to provide us with important information. We monitor the tip line every day. The phone number is 415-315-2435.

"Google Voice"

Next week I will write about how Google Voice will keep residents connected with their beat officers.

I would like to conclude by mentioning to all of you what I have been saying to the community this week. If you see or hear something which seems suspicious to you and your first instinct is to phone the police, then please do so. You can always phone the non-emergency line at 415-553-0123.

Have a great weekend!
