Captain Lazar's Message

Thank you to all of you who have agreed to receive my weekly newsletter. Quite a few people signed up this week. Staying connected and partnering with the community is very important to all of us at Central Station.

Central Station Officers have been working to address crime and have made some great arrests. We have been planning for both the North Beach Festival scheduled for this weekend and the Pride Parade on June 26th.

This will be the first year for us at Central Station providing police coverage for the Pride Parade. Our district boundaries changed last July and we missed the parade by less than a month. We are now responsible for Market Street from the Ferry Building to 3rd Street. However, we will handle the entire length of the parade.

This weekend I look forward to seeing many people from the community at our annual North Beach Fair. I, along with a group of officers, will be covering the fair for two days. As a reminder, other than the designated beer gardens, this is an alcohol free event. We are going to work to ensure that it is another safe event this year.

Commanding Officer Central Station*

Great Arrests

Yesterday, Officers Van Koll and Anderson arrested an individual who we believe was responsible for 4 auto thefts. The suspect would pose as a valet at a hotel on Geary Street and when the victim provides the suspect with the car, the suspect would just drive off.

Officers Harris and Nestor from Tenderloin Station assisted us this week when they arrested a person who was responsible for several thefts and robberies at retail stores downtown. Based on a thorough investigation from Central's Investigations Team, we put the suspect's photo in a bulletin. Officers Harris and Nestor knew who the suspect was, drove to a particular location where they believed he would be and took him into custody. Great work!

Speaking of retail theft, our Station Investigation's Team, led by Lieutenant Valerie Matthews, arrested a prolific thief from Union Square, responsible for several thousand dollars worth of merchandise from the retail area. Excellent work!

On May 23rd, Officer Milligan was made aware of a burglary/carjacking with a gun incident on the 900 block of Union Street in the middle of the day. Officer Milligan made other officers aware and Plainclothes Officers Huang and Reyes saw the car and called in their observation. Officers from Northern Station pursued the vehicle which ended up in the Bayview District. Three of the four suspects were taken into custody!

On May 27th, Officer McFall was working alone and conducted a traffic stop at Geary and Jones resulting in the seizure of a firearm.

On May 30th, Officers Cheng and Guerrero responded to a person with a gun call at Market and Kearny at 1:00 a.m. Upon arrival, they detained numerous juveniles, including one who was in possession of a .22 caliber handgun.

On June 1st, Officers Busalacchi and Montague, assisted by Officers Graziano and Williams, arrested an individual for burglary on the unit block of 1st Street.

On June 5th, Officers Lowe, Ferraresi, Unser and Kerrigan arrested an individual for pushing a 69 year old male into San Francisco Bay. Fortunately, the victim survived.

Quite often we hear about mail and package thefts in the community. On June 7th, Officers Tano and Mcauliffe arrested an individual for stealing a package on the 2100 block of Vallejo Street.

This is just a sample of the great arrests happening every day in the Central District!

Barricaded Suspect

I would like to thank all of the officers who responded to the 900 block of Pacific last Friday regarding the armed and barricaded suspect. I am also grateful for the community who were inconvenienced by the street closures and restricted access to their residences. The officers did an outstanding job ensuring the public was safe. In the end, 6 officers received minor injuries. The suspect is in custody and the District Attorney's Office has charged the suspect with numerous criminal offenses.

Traffic Enforcement

The Traffic Company assisted us the other day conducting traffic enforcement along the Broadway Corridor from Powell to Battery Street. This was a morning commute operation. As a result, 9 drivers were cited for texting while driving, 2 for speeding, and 5 for failing to yield to a pedestrian in the crosswalk!

Last Friday, around 7:30 a.m., I was traveling down Market Street on duty, in an unmarked police car. I noticed bicycles were running red light after red light. My attention was focused on one individual who ran a red light at Market and 4th Streets where a car on the green light had to come to an abrupt stop. Finally after several red lights, the bicyclist ran their final light at Market and Grant and took a left turn, rode on the sidewalk and then walked their bicycle. I pulled up, parked my car, approached this person, asked for their identification and issued a citation. In the nicest way possible, I explained, "Better a future reflection on receiving this citation and stopping next time then by being hit by a car." Citations are good educational tools as well.

Have a great weekend!

SFPD Kicks Off Summer of Engagement, Education and Employment for San Francisco Youth

The San Francisco Police Department today launched a slate of programs designed to engage, educate and employ our youth this summer and beyond. The goal is to build bridges with our City's young people, provide them with meaningful and productive employment opportunities and offer safe, fun activities.

In partnership with sf.citi, San Francisco Public Utilities Commission, and San Francisco Youth Jobs+, SFPD this year will employ approximately 300 young people (ages 14 to 18 years old) through four programs:

- The Garden Project: This 10-week paid program provides youth with land management training that ranges from designing and planting gardens to clearing fire trails in the Sierras. Students this year are eligible for one college credit by participating in a life skills education program at Skyline College.
- Future Grads: An eight-week, tech-driven summer intern program in which participants receive a stipend while learning. Guided by corporate mentors, youth engage in real world work environments to complete projects. Several Future Grads have found continued employment with their mentor company after completion of their internship.
- Project Pull & SF Works: These paid, eight-week summer internship programs place promising high school students from diverse San Francisco communities in various City departments. Students are able to explore careers in architecture, business, engineering and science, as a possible path to joining the City's workforce after graduation.

In addition, SFPD continues to partner with community-based organizations and other San Francisco County agencies on educational programs for students:

- Community Safety Initiative (CSI): This collaborative program partners SFPD with Mo' Magic to offer summer jobs to underserved youth. The goal is to provide young people with an overview of a diverse field of careers. Employment opportunities range from the culinary arts to medicine and law enforcement. CSI includes on the job training, classroom instruction and extends beyond the summer, enabling participants to continue their training up to age 25.
- Youth Career Academy: This six week program offers young people a holistic view of the criminal justice system. YCA provides middle and high school students opportunities to speak to and learn from members of SFPD, San Francisco District Attorney's Office, San Francisco Public Defender's Office, Juvenile and Adult Probation and the Superior Court. Students visit various justice and law enforcement agencies and participate in mock court proceedings to help demystify the criminal justice system.

Along with the educational and employment opportunities listed above, SFPD will provide safe and fun activities for youth throughout the City this summer. Activities include rafting, camping trips, swimming events, bowling and community barbecues- all at no charge. To learn more about these and other events and opportunities, please contact the Department's Youth and Community Engagement Unit at (415) 837-7245.
