Captain Lazar's Message

Remembering 9/11

On the eve of the 14th anniversary of 9/11, we remember the sacrifices of the first responders and their families. This morning, the Fisherman's Wharf Rotary Club held their 2nd Annual First Responder Breakfast at the Franciscan Restaurant. In attendance, in addition to the SFPD, were Deputy Chief Sainez (on behalf of Chief Suhr), Commander Chaplin of our Investigations Division, along with Sergeants Tobin and Fischer, Officers Matthias, Tapang, Carew and Pascua. We are grateful for our partnership with the Rotary Club and the community who support their First Responders.

NFL Season Kick Off

Superbowl 50 will be held in San Francisco this year. In late January and the beginning of February 2016, "Superbowl City" will be held in the Central District at Justin Herman Plaza and along the foot of Market Street.

Today, the NFL is starting the season with a free concert at Justin Herman Plaza which begins at 3:30 p.m. In addition, there is a "mini" NFL Experience taking place at Pier 35 which is also free to the public. I will be at the concert with numerous Officers to provide for a safe event.

Auto Burglary Media Coverage

In today's Chronicle, CW Nevius wrote an article about Auto Burglaries in the Central District. The media is another way to get the word out to the community about safeguarding valuables and not leaving anything in your vehicle.

Lieutenant's Promotions

The Department has promoted 25 Sergeants to the rank of Lieutenant. I have the opportunity tomorrow to speak with them on the importance of community policing and partnerships with the community. Building trust, working collaboratively, and being accessible will be the focus of my presentation. Central Station may be assigned new Lieutenants. I will let you know who they are, what watch they are assigned and how you may contact them.

SF Safe Fundraiser

Central Station Officers, including myself, will be participating this Sunday in a foot race in Golden Gate Park to raise funds for our non-profit crime prevention partner, SF Safe. We will be running a 5K. My family and I have participated for many years and it is a lot of fun.

Good Samaritan

A Police Officer assigned to Central Station lost his wallet the other day while on patrol around Washington and Montgomery Street. In the wallet was his official police identification, credit cards, $200 in cash, and his driver's license. He was required to prepare a report and none of us believed he would see these items again. A good Samaritan happened to find the wallet and mailed it back to the Officer's home address. Everything was intact and nothing was missing. I called the person and thanked him on behalf of the Officer and the station. The man said that he just stumbled upon the wallet. We are all very thankful.

Body Camera Public Meetings

The Police Commission will be holding the first of two public meetings regarding the Body Camera Draft Policy on Wednesday, September 16, 2015. The meeting will be held at the Korean American Community Center located at 745 Buchanan in the Northern. The Meeting will begin at 6:00 p.m. The second meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, October 21, 2015 in the Tenderloin.

Please Phone the Police

We encourage everyone to report crime. On September 4, 2015 at around noon, a person called the police to say "people were doing drugs" in Woh Hei Yuen Park on the 900 block of Jackson Street. Officers Carr, Gopar, To, Milligan and Watson responded. Their investigation led to a detention of four individuals. As a result, all four were arrested with combined charges of possession of methamphetamine, possession of narcotics paraphernalia, a no bail warrant for identity theft and other assorted arrest warrants. We are grateful for calls by the public.

Have a great weekend!
