Captain Lazar's Message

Safeguard your Cell Phone

I am starting to see a slight uptick in the amount of phones taken by individuals. I have written about this before where I ask everyone to be mindful to not display a cell phone in public. Our recent cases involve a person usually walking alone either looking at or talking on their phone. They are either struck from behind or the suspect will grab the phone out of the hand of the victim and run off.

*Captain David Lazar
Commanding Officer Central Station*

When I speak with the community about this crime, I offer ways to avoid from becoming a victim. Here are some things to consider:

1. When in public, act as if you do not have a phone. In other words, never bring it out of your pocket. (This includes not having on headphones).
2. While keeping your phone in your pocket, keep an eye on your surroundings, who is around you and what activity is happening on the street.
3. If you have to make a call, check your email or send a text, briefly step out of the public view and use your phone.
4. When using the 311 app, take a photo quickly and send the 311 information when out of the public view.
5. The exception to all of these considerations is in an emergency when you have to call 911 and there is no time to wait!

Featured Officer and Citizen of the Month.

Over a year ago, when my friend and peer, Captain Jason Cherniss, was the Commanding Officer of Tenderloin Station, he had this idea to feature an Officer and Citizen each month in his newsletter. I thought this to be a brilliant way to not only feature the officers who patrol your neighborhood, but to also compliment the great partnerships we have with our community.

So, beginning this month (November 2015), we will be featuring our Officer and Citizen of the month. In today's newsletter, we are starting with North Beach Foot Beat Officer Kevin Worrell. We will add our Citizen of the Month next week!

Women on Patrol for 40 Years

On Tuesday, November 10, 2015, the Department celebrated 40 years of women police officers in the San Francisco Police Department. Although dating back to the early 1900's, women were employed by the Department in various capacities, they didn't become police officers until the first Academy Class (126th) began in 1975. We celebrated this significant milestone by taking a historic photograph in the Rotunda at City Hall which was followed by a reception. It was a beautiful event in which I was honored to attend. Enclosed are the Central Station Officers who attended the event. One of the women featured is Lieutenant Molly Pengel. Lt. Pengel is our daywatch Lieutenant and comes from a long line of police officers as her sister, Retired Deputy Chief Mindy Pengel was in the first class in 1975. Lt. Pengel has two sisters in the Department, Lt. Miriam Pengel and Sergeant Maura Pengel. Their father was a Police Inspector as well. Their family dates back nearly 70 years in the SFPD.

Featured Officer of the Month

Officer Kevin Worrell

Each month Central Police Station features one of its officers in an effort to learn more about the men and women who police our neighborhood. This month, we interviewed Officer Kevin Worrell, a 13-year member of Central Police Station.

Officer Kevin Worrell was born in Redwood City, CA and grew up in South San Francisco, CA. Officer Worrell attended Mills High School where he was an avid softball player and water polo player. He later attended the College of San Mateo.

On 09/18/2000, Officer Worrell entered the San Francisco Police Academy as a member of the 198th recruit class, to follow in his Grandfather's footsteps. After graduating from the San Francisco Police Academy, Officer Worrell went to Mission Station for his field training. After completing his field training, Officer Worrell went to Ingleside Station for his probation station. When Officer Worrell's probation period was over, he received the wonderful news that he was going to Central Station for his permanent station. Some Officers wait 6-8 years to get to Central Station, Officer Worrell felt like he had hit the jackpot!

Officer Worrell has really enjoyed his time here at Central Station. Not only is he a great asset to our station but to our entire department. Officer Worrell is the North Beach foot beat officer and you can often see him walking around the neighborhood with his big friendly smile. Officer Worrell is also the Commissioner of the San Francisco Police Department Softball League.
